

Remaining number of nodes and demand pairs in the kernel for a tree with 1024 nodes generated with the Caterpillar method, demand pairs generated using the ThroughKnownSolution method, and the Bousquet algorithm. The optimal solution size is at most 10. Average over 50 experiments.

